Jha Shri Raghunath

Will the Minister of PERSONNEL,PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of complaints pending with the Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) for more than four weeks concerning corruption;

(b) the reasons for delay in disposing off the complaints;

(c) the time by when these complaints will be disposed off;

(d) whether the Central Vigilance Commissioner has written to Government to take steps to tighten its vigilance over the Kendriya Bhandar; and

(e) if so, the action taken by the Government in this regard?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTRY AFFAIRS.(SHRI SURESH PACHOURI)

(a), (b) & (c): As per the information provided by the Central Vigilance Commission (CVC), the number of complaints that were sent for investigation and report during the last one year and are pending with the Departments/Organizations is 458. The CVC sends the complaints to the CVOs of various organizations for investigation and report. The receipt of the reports are reviewed and monitored by the Commission to reduce the time taken in investigation of complaints.

(d) & (e): The CVC has written a letter stating that Kendriya Bhandar should follow the procedure prescribed by the CVC for maintaining the registers for handling of complaints etc. CVC has also advised that Kendriya Bhandar should furnish quarterly progress reports of Stores/Purchase contracts; Price agreements etc. awarded to various suppliers. Kendriya Bhandar has informed that they have complied with both the instructions.
